IMCAS RETURNS TO PARIS FOR 20TH ANNIVERSARY

IMCAS is returning home to Paris for its 2018 Annual World Congress to celebrate its 20th anniversary. IMCAS offers a multi-specialty conference dedicated to aesthetic science.

A record 8,000 delegates, from dermatology, plastic surgery, and related professions, are expected to attend this year's meeting to explore the hottest topics in the medical aesthetic field.

The three-day program covers innovative technical procedures, cutting edge products and devices, and up-to-the-minute marketing and management approaches offering an overview of the latest advances in the field.

In addition to hundreds of the world's experts and innovators sharing their insights, IMCAS Annual World Congress will also host 250 international exhibiting companies. Get more information at imcas.com.

ODAC MARKS 15TH ANNIVERSARY

The Orlando Dermatology Aesthetic and Clinical Conference (ODAC) is celebrating its 15th anniversary at its upcoming conference January 12-15, 2018. The conference, now in its second year in Miami, attracts more than 550 dermatology physicians, residents, nurse practitioners, and physician assistants each year.

The 2018 conference continues to focus on new uses for old treatments; incorporating new treatments, products and treatment lines; critical updates in diagnosis guidelines; and advanced techniques for enhancing surgical and nonsurgical patient outcomes. Up to 30 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™ are available.

The interactive learning experience includes more than 25 workshops and more than 10 hours of live aesthetic demonstrations as well as hands-on sessions, small group discussions, live Q&As and opportunities to dialogue with leaders in the field.

The conference includes an exhibit hall with more than 60 companies. In addition, more than 100 research and case study posters are available for viewing. The Advanced Resident Training and Education (ARTE) scholarship program provides the ODAC learning experience to more than 150 future dermatologists.

ODAC will be held at the National Doral Miami, eight miles from the Miami International Airport. Registration is available at orlandoderm.org. ■
